Venice, June 24.

BY an Engliſh Ship which is arrived from Salonica in 44 Days we learn, that five Ships from Tripoli had paſſed by that Port to join the Ottoman Fleet near the Dardanels, and that 4000 Foot had marched from thence to join the Turkiſh Army. The Captain of this Ship ſays, that before he left that Place a Capighi Baſſa was ſent from Adrianople, with a Retinue of 20 Perſons, to take the Head of the Governour of Dulcigno, and of every Perſon who was concerned in the Pyracy and Murther committed lately in the following Manner: An Engliſh Merchant-Ship, named the Adventure, Captain Cleveland Commander, was met at Sea 12 Leagues off Durazzo, by a Corſair or Pyrate-Ship of Dulcigno: The Pyrates went on board the Engliſh Ship as Friends, till they much out-numbered the Engliſhmen, which were 32; and then at once the Turks ſeized them all, bound them Back to Back and threw them into the Sea; as ſome of thoſe Pyrates confeſſed at Durazzo, where they firſt put in with the Ship, and having ſold ſome of the Cargo there, they carried her to Dulcigno. The Engliſh Conſul here, having Intelligence ſent him from Durazzo of what the ſaid Pyrates had confeſſed, he reclaimed the Ship and Goods, as well at Durazzo as at Dulcigno, but without Effect. Complaint having been likewiſe made at the Ottoman Court by the Britiſh Ambaſſadour, the Capighi Baſſa has been ſent with the forementioned Orders for puniſhing ſo great a Barbarity; and the ſaid Engliſh Captain adds, that from Dulcigno the Capighi Baſſa is to proceed to Durazzo for the ſame Purpoſe. We have Advice from Corfu, that General Schulenbourg was on his Departure from thence for Dalmatia. Letters from Naples adviſe, that the Viceroy uſes all Diligence in providing for the Security of the Coaſts and Places of Strength of that Kingdom; and that laſt Week he took a Review of ſeveral Regiments in the Neighbourhood of Naples, which form a Body of 24000 Men.

Madrid, June 27. By an Expreſs from Barcelona we have an Account, that the Fleet put to Sea from thence on the 17th in the Evening, and having the Wind fair was out of Sight the next Day. The Squadron which ſailed from Cadiz on the 26th of May, joined the Fleet at Barcelona a few Hours before it ſailed. The Troops which are imbarked on this Fleet, conſiſt of 37 Battallions of 600 Men each, and of 60 Squadrons of 120 each. An Expreſs from Cadiz has brought Advice, that on the 17th a Squadron of five Men of War and ſeven Tranſports ſailed from thence, that they are to be joined at Malaga and at Cartagena by more Tranſports, and then to proceed to Barcelona, where the Commadore is to receive Orders.
